

AFAR

6 Hotels with Dazzlingly Unique Designs

A collection of eye-popping hotels worth traveling for.

2.19.2016

It's not every day that you stumble across a luxurious safari lodge nestled in the Okavango Delta, or a hotel made up of seventy houses piled on top of one another. Here's a hand-picked a collection of unique stays that are serious eye-candy.

6. Big Cypress Lodge

Memphis, Tennessee

Known as the former home court of the Memphis Grizzlies, this 32-story steel pyramid is now taking reservations for the Big Cypress Lodge. The hotel is located inside the Bass Pro Shops that now occupies the pyramid, with rustic interior inspired by duck hunting camps. Guests stay in rooms with handcrafted furniture, electric fireplaces and screened-in porches overlooking the ground floor swamp.