From plane tickets to accommodations, it adds up fast. That said, traveling on a budget doesn't mean skimping on style or service. Whoever said good things come at a price obviously never visited these praise-worthy properties. Here, 16 hotels with rates under $300 a night—unheard of, but not impossible.

BIG CYPRESS LODGE (MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE)

Housed in the 32-story Bass Pro Shop Pyramid in downtown Memphis, Big Cypress Lodge is a wilderness-inspired masterpiece with a larger-than-life personality. There's an alligator-infested swamp, ocean-themed bowling alley, sky-high observation deck and the largest free-standing elevator in America.

Starting at $205 per night
